Thank you for your interest in The Ludlow Christmas Fair.

Please note that no place is guaranteed until you, the Stallholder, has been notified that you have been successful in your application and the full amount due has been received.

- The Ludlow Christmas Fair organisers will review your application and contact you by the first week of May with the outcome of their decision.

- Furthermore, the organisers may offer you a Stall but on the basis of a reduced space to that stated in your application.

- If you are successful in your application, to maintain the balance of goods on sale, please do not bring a different selection of products to that described on your application form. The organisers reserve the right to ask Stallholders to remove any items that are not described in application.

- If successful, I, the Stallholder, agree:
  - to present my Stall in a professional manner, and within the space booked;
  - to help publiciseTheLudlow Christmas Fair on all social media accounts and mailing lists.
  - to give 10% of takings and 10% of orders taken at the Ludlow Christmas Fair to the League of Friends of the Orthopaedic Hospital Oswestry; VAT deducted if registered.
  - that all electrical equipment has been PAT tested within the previous 12 months of the date of the Fair;
  - that at the date of the Fair, I will have in place all valid and appropriate Product, Public and, where applicable, Employer's Liability Insurance, and ensure the safety of everyone associated with my Stall.
  - Donate raffle prize Value £15 minimum

- Should you, the Stallholder, cancel after payment has been received no refund shall be given.

- The Ludlow Christmas Fair reserves the right to cancel your attendance at theFair if they consider it necessary.

- The Ludlow Christmas Fair reserves the right to cancel the Fair should the organisers consider this necessary. Furthermore, whilst all due precautions are taken, TheLudlow Christmas Fair organisers cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage to products or persons during theFair.
